BANGALORE DISTRICT.

The right of collecting fees on Santhes in the Magadi Taluk from 1st July 1926 to 30th June 1927, will be sold by the President, Magadi Taluk Board, by public auction in the respective places and on respective dates noted against them at 1 P. M.

2. The successful purchaser shall collect fees only at the rates noted in the annexed schedule and at no higher rates and only on the articles that will be brought on Santhe days within the market premises.

3. The President, Taluk Board, reserves to himself the power of refusing the highest or any bid that may be afforded without assigning any reason therefor.

4. The contract amount is payable in twelve monthly instalments due on or before the 7th of every month in advance. The contractor shall pay, as soon as the sale is over, a deposit equal to two months' instalments, for the due performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract, failing which, the deposit will be forfeited.

5. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the first purchaser. If the default is made in the payment of instalments on due date, i.e., 7th of every month, interest at one pie per rupee per month, will be charged on the amount due after the 7th of every month till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold again at the discretion of the President, Taluk Board, and the loss arising from the resale will be recovered from the former contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.

6. The contractor is also bound to keep a detailed account showing collections and it shall be open to inspection by the officers of the Taluk and District Boards.

7. The contractor of the market will also be given the right of collecting and utilizing the market sweepings and it will be his duty to keep the premises clean, failing which, a fine of Re. one will be levied for each day per diem of default, and should the default continue for more than six days, the contract is liable to be cancelled and resold at his risk.

8. The contractor shall exhibit at the entrance to the market place on market days a Notice board setting forth the rates at which fees are levied.

9. No claims for remission on account of the prevalence of plague, cholera and other epidemic or any other cause, will be entertained.

10. The market is liable to be closed temporarily for the purpose of preventing the spread of epidemics either among men or cattle if such course is considered necessary by the President, Taluk Board. No claim for remission consequent on such prohibition can however be entertained.

11. A person bringing things for his own shop, shall not be charged separate fees, one for the load and the other for exposing things in the shop, but will be liable for only the higher fees.

12. The contractor shall be responsible for the cleanliness of the premises.

13. The shop-keepers and the contractor are bound to obey the orders of the Taluk Board authorities with regard to the allocation of shops.

14. Should the contractor or his servants charge or attempt to charge any fees other than those stated in the schedule below, or should his servants fail to fulfil any of the obligations entailing on him by any of the preceding paragraphs, his contract will be liable to be cancelled, his deposit forfeited and the lease resold at his risk.
